CAMP MASTER WRITES...

Dear Campers,

We have been told time after time that the end of the world is near, and that the time of the Lord's return is coming soon, even at the door step. But have we been guilty of taking the "liberty" to analyse the signs of the times to roughly gauge Christ's return as a license to relax as He tarries?

All around us, we can see compromise and God's Word taken for granted, with lukewarm love towards God, and time and talent not used for God's work and glory. On top of all this, we do see many signs of the times coming to pass. Surely this is not the time to relax!

I pray that during the course of these three days of the Combined Youth Conference 2008, through the faithful teaching and preaching of God's infallible and inerrant word, we may reflect on how we have been living for Christ and see how little time we have left to serve our Lord, by the Holy Spirit's illumination and leading.

Knowing where we have come from, and what is to come in the days ahead, I pray we may appropriate our lives accordingly in a manner that's well-pleasing and glorifying to His Name.

Our Lord tarries, or so it seems. Is this your license to relax?
Hebrews 10:37

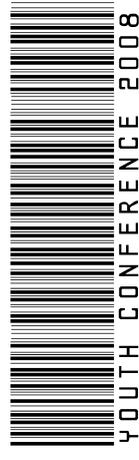

In Christ,
Andrew Kan

“How is it that ye have no faith?”

- Mk 4:40 -

Jesus said, “PEACE BE STILL.” And the wind ceased. Our Lord is able. He is worthy of our trust. He dispels our fears. Where there is little faith there are many fears. The disciples were filled with alarm and Jesus inquires, “How is it that ye have no faith?” May not our heavenly Father often address us in the same language: “How is it that ye give no credit to my word? How is it that ye place no dependence upon my person, character and faithfulness? How is it that ye haven o confidence in my power, presence, and love? How is it that ye do not expect my help and look for my supplies? Have I not made promises which are plain, positive, and sure? Have I not fulfilled my promises again and again? Have I not summoned witnesses to attest the truth of my word? Have I not promised you my Holy Spirit? Have I not pledged my holiness? Have I not given my Son for you and to you? Have I not appeared for you in every past difficulty? How is it, then, that ye have no faith?” Beloved, let us humble ourselves before God. Let us plead guilty of indulging in unbelief and plead for faith. Let us look to God in every place and in everything. Let us trust Him when we cannot trace Him.

Why should my soul indulge complaints

And yield to dark despair?

The least of all my Father’s saints

Are safe beneath His care;

Dear Lord, increase my faith in Thee

Till I Thy face in glory see

Daily Remembrancer by Pastor James Smith

“For with the Lord there is mercy”

- Ps 130:7 -

“WITH HIM IS PLENTEOUS REDEMPTION.” Mercy is of the Lord. His mercy never fails. Plenteous mercy dwells in God. It is one of His perfections. The exercise of it is His delight. There is mercy with the Lord in all His fullness; He never was more merciful than now, nor He ever will be. There is mercy with the Lord in all its tenderness: He is full of compassion, His fond feelings are exercised for us, His tender mercies are over us. There is mercy with Him in all its variety, meet for ever case. Here is mercy that receives sinners, mercy that restores backsliders, mercy that surrounds believers. Here is mercy that pardons sin, that introduces to the enjoyment of all gospel privileges, and that blesses the praying soul far beyond expectations. With the Lord there is plenteous mercy: He loves to display it, He is ready to impart it, He has determined to exalt and glorify it. There is mercy with the Lord; that should encourage the miserable sinner to approach Him; this informs the fearful, they need bring nothing to induce him to bless them; this calls upon backsliders to return to Him; and this is calculated to cheer the weary and worn believer, under all his troubles and distresses. Look to the Lord, for He is good; His mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Believer, on the Lord recline.

His mercy’s boundless and divine!

See from the cross how wide it flows,

Beyond the bound of all thy woes!

Daily Remembrancer by Pastor James Smith

“God is faithful”

- 1 Cor 10:13 -

OUR LORD IS THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER. He changes not. This is the believer's complete assurance; without the Lord, his comforts would droop and hope would crumble to the dust. We are at times shaken to pieces by unbelief, and filled with tormenting doubts. We feel nothing of the presence, power, or comforts of the Holy Spirit; faith, hope, and love seem to be quite extinguished. We have no power, and scarcely any inclination to pray; we feel only hardness, fretfulness and misery. We are tempted by Satan and harassed with tormenting thoughts, so that we feel tired of this miserable life. But God is faithful, He never fails us, but appears again and again, restoring us to peace, joy, and satisfaction; and our most miserable times are often followed by unspeakable joys. The Scriptures are opened to our understanding, the promises are applied to our souls, and we are filled with the comforts of the Holy Spirit. Then our souls bow before God in contrition and holy penitence; we crumble to dust before Him, and can only admire and adore the riches of free and sovereign grace. Beloved, in the darkest night, remember, “God is always faithful.”

He will not His great self deny;

A God of truth can never lie:

True to his word, God gave his Son

To die for crimes which men had done:

Blest pledge! He never will revoke

A single promise he has spoke.

“The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.”
